

The Salt Lake Tribune's 2002-2003 J.F. Fitzpatrick High School Journalism Contest

Name: _____

Position: _____

School: _____

School Address: _____

City, State, ZIP: _____

Phone: _____

Division: _____

Entry Type: (circle) Newspaper Individual (Category) _____

ABOUT THE CONTEST

The Salt Lake Tribune sponsors an annual excellence in journalism contest for high school newspapers. The competition is named for J.F. Fitzpatrick, Tribune publisher from 1924 to 1960.

ELIGIBILITY

Competition for the best newspaper is open to all high school newspapers.

JUDGING

Tribune editors will judge submissions. The winners will be announced in the editor's Sunday column May 18, 2003.

DIVISIONS

Best Paper Award
5A, 4A, 3A, 2A/1A (Per UHSSA)

Individual Journalist Awards

Best Story
Best Photograph
Best Editorial or Column
Best Page Design

Each school is limited to two examples of each.
(If short explanation of extenuating circumstances is needed, include it with entry. Photo entries must be in glossy print format. Entries will not be returned.)

Prizes

Best Newspapers (for each division) $ 500 for school's journalism program

Best Individual Awards
$ 200 each winner

DEADLINE: April 25, 2003

Entries must be in the office of The Salt Lake Tribune before 3 p.m. on the deadline day.

HOW TO ENTER

Submit entries using this form Each entry must include an entry form.

Send all entries to:

Connie Coyne
The Salt Lake Tribune
143 South Main Street
Salt Lake City, UT 84111

The Salt Lake Tribune