

From: Nate Carlisle <ncarlisle@sltrib.com>
Subject: RE: Final Response Public Record Request 07-131
Date: Fri, 7 Sep 2007 16:05:51 -0600
To: <publicrecord@bsu.edu>
Attachments: 0

Dear Sali Falling and Ball State:

Thank you for your e-mail of Sept. 6 and the documents you attached.
I have some questions about the information.

Will Ball State please provide breakdowns of the substances for which athletes tested positive and the sports played by those athletes?

Do the invoices for Drug Free Sports represent all the money spent on drug testing?

Are suspensions mandatory on a first-time positive?

Thank you.

Nate Carlisle

----- Original Message -----

From: publicrecord@bsu.edu
To: ncarlisle@sltrib.com
Subject: RE: Final Response Public Record Request 07-131
Date: Thu, 6 Sep 2007 12:20:29 -0400

>Mr. Carlisle:

>

>

>

>Attached please find the response to your public records request. It >might be helpful for you to know that there is no set budget for >testing

>as invoices are paid when services are billed. However, I have >attached

>the invoices paid during the past year. The invoices also indicate >the >number of specimens collected. Finally, although I have attached our >agreement with the vendor, no bid process was used for the selection >of >this vendor.

>

>

>

>Thank you.

>

>

>

>Sali Falling