Nate,

We switched testing companies from AEGIS to Drug Free Sport between 04 and 05. We also brought in a new head for the sports medicine department in August 04 who had been employed at several different schools where there was a more active drug testing program. We incorporated his ideas and experience and the recommendations from Drug Free Sport, and increased the number of testing of drugs and athletes, beginning in January 05. Hope this info helps.

Sincerely,

Dear Ms. Pottorff:

Thank you for your letter of March 9 and the enclosures. I have some questions about the data you provided.

The testing budget and the number of athletes tested increased after 2004. Can you please tell me why?

Also, the substances for which tests were administered increased after 2004. Can you please tell me why?

Thank you.

Sincerely,
Nate Carlisle
