Scott,

I was copied on a request you put in to legal counsel about drug testing, and just wanted to let you know that it is being worked on. They will get you what they are required to.

I did just want to ask what this is about? This just seems like an odd request that is out of the blue, and your line about "benefiting the public" seems like a bit of a stretch here. That's just my opinion though, and it doesn't really matter, I suppose, what I think about it. I just see a lot of frivolous requests come through from journalists and budding journalists who all want to be the next Woodward or Bernstein and this just seems like one of those. If it's none of my business, then so be it, but since we know each other, I thought I'd respond to you and ask about it.

On another note, I hope all is well your way. Take care...
