Dear Ms. Light:

Thank you for your e-mail of Aug. 8 and the documents you supplied. I have some questions.

The positives from 2005 say the offender received "Mandatory counseling." However, the positives from 2006 and 2007 say the offenders received "Mandatory counseling and suspension from competition for the next 10% of season."

Can you please explain the difference in the punishments? Do the differences reflect a policy change? If so, what prompted the change?

Also, can you please provide a breakdown of positive tests by sport and substances for which the athletes tested positive?

Thank you.

Nate Carlisle
